

Girl Scouts Louisiana East
“Tracking the Girl Scout Past”
Patch program for Girl Scout Daisies – Ambassadors

Wow, Girl Scouting will be turning 100 in 2012! Discover what Girl Scouting was like by interviewing adult women who grew up as Girl Scouts or Girl Guides! Uncover exciting Girl Scout stories from their past and share this little piece of history! Share your findings with us so we can educate others about the history of Girl Scouting!

Requirements: Girls should conduct an interview with a woman who was a Girl Scout or a Girl Guide. Some sources may include relatives, friends, local women’s clubs, churches or schools. The interview can be done individually or as a troop.

- ⌚ Girl Scout Daisies should ask and submit the answers to at least three questions.
- ⌚ Girl Scout Brownies should ask and submit the answers to at least five questions.
- ⌚ Girl Scout Juniors should ask and submit the answers to at least 10 questions.
- ⌚ Girl Scout Cadettes – Ambassadors should ask and submit the answers to at least 15 or more questions.

Here is a list of questions that may be used. Please feel free to think of your own!

- When and where were you a Girl Scout or Girl Guide?
- What were the Girl Scout Girl Guide songs that you would sing?
- What are some of the camping experiences that you remember?
- Did your troop go on any trips? If so, who did the planning?
- What was your favorite badge?
- How was your uniform different from the ones today?
- Did you sell cookies? If so, what were the goals you set for yourself?
- Did you do service projects? If so, what were they?
- What was your favorite game you would play?
- Did you have a camp name? If so, what was it?
- Do you remember a humorous story that was connected with your troop?
- Do you keep in touch with anyone from your troop?
- What was your most memorable moment in Girl Scouting?
- How did Girl Scouting influence your life?
