

Faith is at the heart of Girl Scouting. As part of the Girl Scout Promise, Girl Scouts pledge to “serve God”* and to “help people at all times.”

Today we lift up these shared values for Girl Scout Sunday (Christian) - Sunday, March 7, 2021 | Girl Scout Jumma (Muslim) - Friday, March 12, 2021 | Girl Scout Sabbath/Shabbat (Jewish) - Friday/Saturday, March 12-13, 2021, an inspiring tradition where girls explore the powerful connections between their faith and Girl Scouting.

Girl Scout Celebrate Faith is included in Girl Scout Week. For information on religious awards, visit girlscouts.org/religiousawards

GIRL SCOUT PROMISE

On my honor, I will try:
To serve God and my country,
To help people at all times,
And to live by the Girl Scout Law.

Girl Scouts Celebrate Faith!

“The motivating force in Girl Scouting is spiritual.”

—Preamble, Constitution of Girl Scouts of the United States of America

At the heart of Girl Scouting are many of the same values most faiths hold:

- Supporting girls
- Making our community a better place
- Building compassionate leaders

Girl Scouts Celebrate Faith honors the powerful ties between Girl Scouting and faith.

Girls are encouraged to connect their faith to the Girl Scout Promise—“On my honor, I will try to serve God”—and can earn religious recognitions in the process.

Let’s honor the Girl Scouts and adult volunteers in your house of worship who give their time and talents in service of others!
